HENLEY-PUTNAM UNIVERSITY HOSTS FREE PUBLIC
TELECONFERENCE BRIEFING ON
" The Best Kept Secret in Law Enforcement "

*-- NCIS Special Agent Henry Pataky, Featured Guest Expert
25 September at 10:00 A.M. PST --*

San Jose, California, September 18, 2008 – On Thursday, September 25, beginning at 10 A.M. (PST), NCIS special agent Henry Pataky, will share his thoughts on pursuing a career with the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) in this month's Henley-Putnam University teleconference.

The teleconference will include topics such as:

1. An explanation of the NCIS mission. NCIS is a civilian federal law enforcement agency tasked with enforcing the criminal and counterintelligence regulations for the Department of the Navy (DoN), which includes the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Marine Corps. Its' primary purpose is to protect the assets, military and civilian personnel and technologies, and the families of those within the DoN.
2. A discussion of the types of crimes and disciplines covered by NCIS agents.
3. A comparison of actual NCIS agents to their counterparts on the hit CBS TV show "NCIS."
4. A conversation about Special Agent Pataky's career along with his "War Stories" from the field.
5. A discussion about how one can become an NCIS special agent.

The Henley-Putnam monthly teleconference briefings are free to the public. Reservations can be made by calling 408-453-9900 ext. 9949. "The Best Kept Secret in Law Enforcement" with Henry Pataky will be live September 25 at 10:00 A.M. PST. Teleconferences are archived for free download on the University's website: <http://www.Henley-Putnam.edu/111-185.htm>.
